

As a consumer who was bothered for years by numerous marketing calls,
I appreciate Indiana's current law and very strongly oppose any weakening of it.
In this, I include any and all banks or financial institutions or any other businesses with whom I may have past or present dealings.
While they may call me on matters of direct concern -- I want none of their telephone marketing any more than anyone else's! Please PROTECT Indiana's current law; do not allow it to be weakened or loop-holed.
